LASALLIAN EDUCATORS DEEPEN UNDERSTANDING OF THE MISSION

by Terri Wetter

Brother Augustine Loes, translator of St. La Salle's Meditations and letters, shares his perspective with Buttimer Institute participants. Having retired from teaching this past summer, Brother Gus will now focus his energies on writing and publishing for Lasallian Publications.

While the District and Institute offer many formation programs for both Brothers and Partners, two programs of particular note primarily involve Partners: the Buttimer Institute for Lasallian Studies, and the Lasallian Leadership Institute, both held at Saint Mary's College in Moraga. This past summer, a visit with participants and presenters from both programs afforded valuable insight into their impact.
