

is Lasallian Spiritual Leadership. Year Two concentrates on Lasallian Educational Leadership, and Year Three concludes the program with its concentration on Lasallian Management/Community Leadership. Each theme seeks to develop an understanding and appreciation of one's own personal development and that of others. Further, each seeks to identify the core principles of the Lasallian tradition, develop skills to advance the mission, and create structures that will sustain the mission into the future.

"It is inspiring to me as an educator to get away from the daily grind and regroup; to be among people who are talking about the larger ideas of the mission, the ministry, our vision and goals," says Cathy Ronan, a teacher and Assistant Principal for Student Life at Sacred serves as a reminder that being 'Lasallian' is all about touching hearts, and that happens one-on-one, one student at a time. LLI helps keep me grounded in the realities of those things that are truly beneficial to students in a school environment."

As it offers participants a structured approach to study of the Founder and Shared Mission, the LLI also provides opportunities for reflection on and rededication to the work of Brothers and Partners.

Heart Cathedral Preparatory in San Francisco. Cathy continues, "Schools are such busy places that it's easy to get lost in the details of one's everyday work. For me, LLI

Special LLI guest speaker, Sister Kathleen Ross, SNJN, inspired participants with her story of the founding of Heritage College in Eastern Washington