De La Salle High School, established in 1965 and sponsored by the Brothers of the Christian Schools (De La Salle Christian Brothers) is a Catholic, Lasallian college preparatory school for boys providing a rich environment for spiritual, academic, and social growth. Its rigorous program of studies is complemented by an extensive array of co-curricular programs. The school’s atmosphere is one which is moral, caring, and joyful. The school is located in the City of Concord, 25 miles east of San Francisco on a 20 acre campus characterized by beauty and openness.

The school seeks candidates for the positions who can promote the school’s Catholic, Lasallian mission through teaching a variety of courses that promote and integrate the school’s core values of faith, integrity, and scholarship.

Position Responsibilities

All teachers at De La Salle High School are expected to:

- Maintain open, helping relationships with students in their care.
- Have and continually develop a professional and service-oriented approach to teaching and utilize a wide range of resources and techniques appropriate for use with students as they are educated within various disciplines.
- Work with and teach the established and approved curriculum
- Participate in department meetings, professional development programs, as well as actively and continually participate in the co-curricular life of the school.
- Demonstrate evidence of commitment to 21st century teaching and learning and the ability to bring such a commitment into the classroom on a daily basis.
- Participate continually in a program of professional growth and development as approved or required by the Principal.
- Integrate the Roman Catholic tradition and the Lasallian heritage into the discharge of their educational responsibilities.
- Work collaboratively and cooperatively with faculty, staff, administration, and parents.

Candidate Profile

Position candidates should minimally hold a Bachelor’s degree in the area in which they will teach. A Master’s degree is preferred. Relevant teaching experience is desirable.

The successful candidate will be a person who believes in and can contribute to the work of Catholic education and the particular ways it is lived through the Lasallian heritage of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. The successful candidate will show evidence of developing the whole person through activities that help students grow in mind, body, soul, and spirit.

Technology expertise and strong communication skills, both written and spoken, and the proven ability to work collaboratively with others are critical components of the desirable candidate.

Priority consideration is given to qualified Roman Catholics.
